

The World's Most Collaborative Global Legal Network

Exceptional law firms. Trusted relationships.
Seamless cross-border legal solutions.

COLLABORATION THAT DELIVERS RESULTS.

When legal matters cross borders, organizations need more than local expertise; they need lawyers who already know how to work together. For more than 35 years, TerraLex member firms have collaborated to help clients navigate complex international transactions, disputes, regulatory matters, and strategic business challenges.

Organizations can expand into new markets with confidence, knowing they have trusted legal advisors wherever business takes them.

TerraLex connects clients with a leading global network of more than 140 carefully selected, full-service, independent law firms, delivering coordinated legal solutions across jurisdictions through relationships built on trust, responsiveness, and collaboration.

TerraLex is built on something more powerful than geographic coverage. It is built on collaboration.

Why TerraLex?

Trusted Relationships

Work with lawyers who already trust one another.

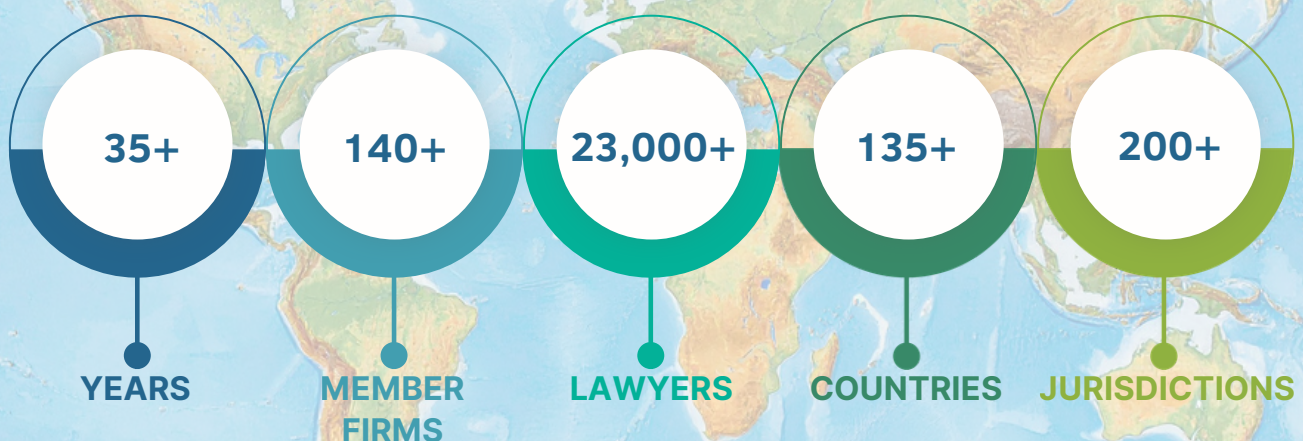

Seamless Collaboration

Access one coordinated global legal team.

Proven Excellence

Rely on consistent legal excellence, responsiveness, and exceptional client service.

ONE NETWORK. UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES.

Global companies achieve better outcomes when their legal advisors work together seamlessly across borders. They can also make informed business decisions faster with practical legal intelligence from around the world. TerraLex's complimentary Cross-Border Guides provide jurisdiction-by-jurisdiction insights across more than 20 practice areas and industries, offering a comparison tool that enables users to quickly identify legal similarities and differences between countries. They are all developed by leading lawyers from our member firms.

Some Proven Successes:

- Nearly 100 legal matters for The Nature Conservancy involving more than 40 TerraLex firms across 20+ countries.
- Coordinated legal support for Victorinox through firms spanning Europe, Asia-Pacific, Latin America, and the Middle East.
